INSTRUCTIONS

A

Take one end of the length and roll it loosely into your hand - you will see as you go, that it begins to resemble a rose. You can make the layers looser towards the end to portray an opening rose bloom.

Secure with craft glue at the back and pin until dry or hand-sew the rose into place with small stitches.

Stitch a safety pin in place in order to secure the rose to clothes. Feel free to add long tassels or ribbons to the back of the rose before securing safety pin.
